Short Reports - URM, Šabac 2025.

BIOGRAPHY

Short Reports is an art-punk duo from Novi Sad, conceptually created at the end of 2019. In two years, the duo wrote the first album "Cats VS Dogs", which was recorded as a demo at the end of 2020. The first concerts followed in the beginning of 2021, and already at their second performance, they won the May Guitar Festival in Požarevac, where they won first place. The money from the prize was used for the purchase of more serious equipment and the start of the tour, and during the year they shared the stage with Artan Lili (Banja Luka 09/04/2021) and Funk Shui and Ego (Niš, Banovina 25. 09. 2021). At the beginning of 2022, Short Reports had two performances in Luxembourg, where the duo represented Novi Sad as the European Capital of Culture.

The year-long tour that followed included several cities in Croatia, and a large number of cities in Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Macedonia. The performances at Kaleidoscope of Culture (September 3, 2022, Novi Sad), the performance at the PIN music conference/showcase in Skopje on November 25, 2022, as well as the performance at B.A.R.F. Festival at the Belgrade Youth Center on December 25 of the same year. A tour of the Balkans also marked the year 2023. It covered Croatia, BiH, Serbia, and Macedonia, and the most significant performances took place at the EXIT Festival on 09/07/2023, Nišville Jazz Festival in Niš on 10/08/2023, Kaleidoscope of Culture (Novi Sad 09/09/2023). At the end of October, the band changes its drummer and ends the year with the premiere performance of the new line-up at the SKCNS Factory at the NS-ALT festival.

They ended the year with the video single "Vožnja", which ended up on many regional charts.

The year 2024 also begins with a tour that covered 10 cities, where the last performance was at the Technical Students' Club in Belgrade on June 13, 2024. After this tour, the duo entered the studio and recorded two albums (17 songs) for the next 3 months. A second album was recorded, as well as a reissue of the first, which will be published in the following period. The latest video single "Stvari" was released on September 13, 2024.

The album "Vožnja" was released on October 11, 2024. and the autumn/winter tour of the current year, which includes 11 cities, starts with a concert in Sombor in Dve Debele Krige. After two sold-out concerts in Novi Sad at the SKCNS Factory and the Belgrade Youth Center (joint concerts with Milet Kekin), Short Reports toured BiH and Serbia during the tour and played at the Pirit Fest in Kosovska Mitrovica as well as at the Prot Fest in Bijeljina. The third music video from the album "Vožnja" was released at the end of the year for the song "Navika", and after that, the duo announced three more concerts in January 2025. The album "Vožnja" has received over 10 recognitions from relevant portals and media houses, one of which is BEEHYPE, the world music community, where the album was declared one of the 80 best albums in the world (more details in the links).

In 2025, Short Reports are on tour again, playing in the countries of the former Yugoslavia (Serbia, Bosnia, Montenegro, Slovenia, Croatia and Macedonia). The band is also working on a new album and new music videos. During 2025, Short Reports had close to 40 live performances. Towards the end of the year, a reissue of the album "Cats VS Dogs" is released, which is now called "Dogs VS Cats".

Balkans and Europe tour is planned for 2026.

(viber, telegram, whatsapp)

Additional information:

The guitar player uses bass and guitar amp + effect out channel for keyboard/looper sounds.
The guitar has an octave down pedal for the bass amp - needs a mic/no line out.
EFFECT OUT is connected directly to the PA board over the DI box and needs a ground lift.
